Scoring Rubric for Prose Constructed Response Items

Correlating Points on the Traits Writing Scoring Guides, Grades 6-8

Written Expression

The student response:

- demonstrates purposeful coherence, clarity, and cohesion, making it easy to follow the writer's progression of ideas.

In his/her response, the writer:

- creates a piece that is easy to follow by fitting details together logically. He or she slows down to spotlight important points or events, and speeds up when he or she needs to move the reader along.
- narrows the theme to create a piece that is clear, tight, and manageable.
- includes a variety of carefully selected sequence words (such as later, then, and meanwhile) and transition words (such as however, also, and clearly), which are placed wisely to guide the reader through the piece by showing how ideas progress, relate, and/or diverge.

The student response:

- establishes and maintains an effective style, attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline.

In his/her response, the writer:

- uses words with precision. He or she selects words the reader needs to fully understand the message. The writer chooses nouns, adjectives, adverbs, and so forth that create clarity and bring the topic to life.
- uses words to capture the reader's imagination and enhance the piece's meaning. There is a deliberate attempt to choose the best word over the first word that comes to mind.
- carefully and creatively constructs sentences for maximum impact.

Knowledge of Language and Conventions

The student response to the prompt demonstrates full command of the conventions of standard English at an appropriate level of complexity. There may be a few minor errors in mechanics, grammar, and usage, but meaning is clear.

In his/her response, the writer:

- spells sight words, high-frequency words, and less familiar words correctly.
- handles basic punctuation skillfully. He or she understands how to use periods, commas, question marks, and exclamation points to enhance clarity and meaning.
- uses capital letters consistently and accurately. A deep understanding of how to capitalize dialogue, abbreviations, proper names, and titles is evident.
- forms grammatically correct phrases and sentences. He or she shows care in applying the rules of standard English.
